WHO WILL BE THE WINNER? - Read a Story

There was one month left until October 16th, which was the National Sports day. Raja Indravarma of Dholakpur and the kings of neighboring villages wanted to organize a fun sports day. The winner would get a 'best sportsman' trophy. Raja Indravarma sent his messenger to go around Dholakpur and the other villages participating, to announce the sports competition date.

All kids from all the villages were very excited to participate in the competition. Dholakpur team consisted of Bheem, Chhutki, Raju, Jaggu, Kalia, and Dholu-Bholu. The Dholakpur team was preparing for the competition for weeks. Bheem was practicing cycling. Chhutki was practicing basketball. Kalia was practicing cricket. Dholu-Bholu were practicing how to ride scooters. Jaggu was practicing playing badminton, and Raju was practicing football.

After a lot of hard-work and practice, sports day finally arrived. All the teams were practicing in the big field. During practice, Raju felt thirsty and went to the Dholakpur tent for water. While he was entering the tent, he heard some noises coming from inside. He peeked in and saw Keechak from the Pehelwanpur team, dismantling some screws from Dholu-Bholu's scooters, so that the Dholakpur team would lose.

When the races started, the whole Dholakpur team was performing very well; Bheem was excellent at cycling, Kalia at Cricket, Jaggu at Badminton, Chhutki at Basketball, and Raju at football. But, when the scooter race started, Dholu-Bholu rode their scooters as fast as they could, but they weren't moving fast at all; while the Pehelwanpur scooter reached the finish line first.

When Pehelwanpur was being awarded the trophy for winning the race, the team leader, Keechak, nervously said, "We removed some screws from the Dholakpur Team's scooters, since we knew they would definitely win. We are really sorry." The king of Pehelwanpur was very angry at Keechak and said, "Then this trophy belongs to Dholakpur." This meant that Dholakpur won the sports competition! Everyone was happy.
