

Singapore: Festival Match

Singapore is a multi-faith, multi-culture country and hence celebrates many festivals. Let's learn about their festivals and match them with their celebration photos.

Chinese New Year :

The first day of Chinese New Year, also known as the Spring Festival in Singapore, falls on the new moon day. The Lunar New Year is of great significance as they clean their homes and make way for good luck. The celebration of this grand festival in Singapore continues for 14 days starting on the eve of the New Years

Lantern Festival

Lantern Festival :

Lantern Festival or the spring lantern festival is one of the most popular festivals in Singapore. It marks the last day of celebration of the Chinese New Year (15th day). During this day, the kids carry paper lanterns outside, lit them up and release them in the sky. It's a magnificent sight to see several lanterns light up the night sky.

Hari Raya Puasa :

Hari Raya Puasa marks the end of Ramadan - the month of fasting by the Muslims. Hari Raya Puasa means 'The day of Celebration'. During this festival in Singapore, people visit the mosques. They celebrate by wearing new clothes and visiting their families along with reciting takbir in mosques in the evening. Oil lamps are also lit up. The festival symbolises purification and renewal of an individual.

Deepavali

Deepavali :

Deepavali or Diwali marks the day Lord Rama returned to his kingdom. It signifies the victory of the good over the bad. During this day, Little India is lit up with lights and the skies are filled with dazzling fireworks in the night. People wear new clothes and greet each other. Before the day, some families clean their houses and make new purchases.

Singapore: National Day

National Day of Singapore is celebrated every year on August 9th to celebrate Singapore's independence from Malaysia in 1965.

In Singapore, 9th August is celebrated as their National Day with a lot of enthusiasm and patriotism. The entire country is decked up beautifully in colours of the flag and lights. Apart from flag hoisting and National Day Parade, there are multiple events at every node of the country. There are spectacular light shows especially at the Marina bay and the Suntech. Orchard Road has a galore of offers and discounts. The entire country rejoices and celebrates their national day with a lot of pride and cheer.

In the national flag of Singapore :

- Red stands for universal brotherhood and equality.
- White symbolises purity and virtue.
- The crescent moon represents a young nation on the ascendant.
- The five stars depict Singapore's ideals of democracy, peace, progress, justice and equality.

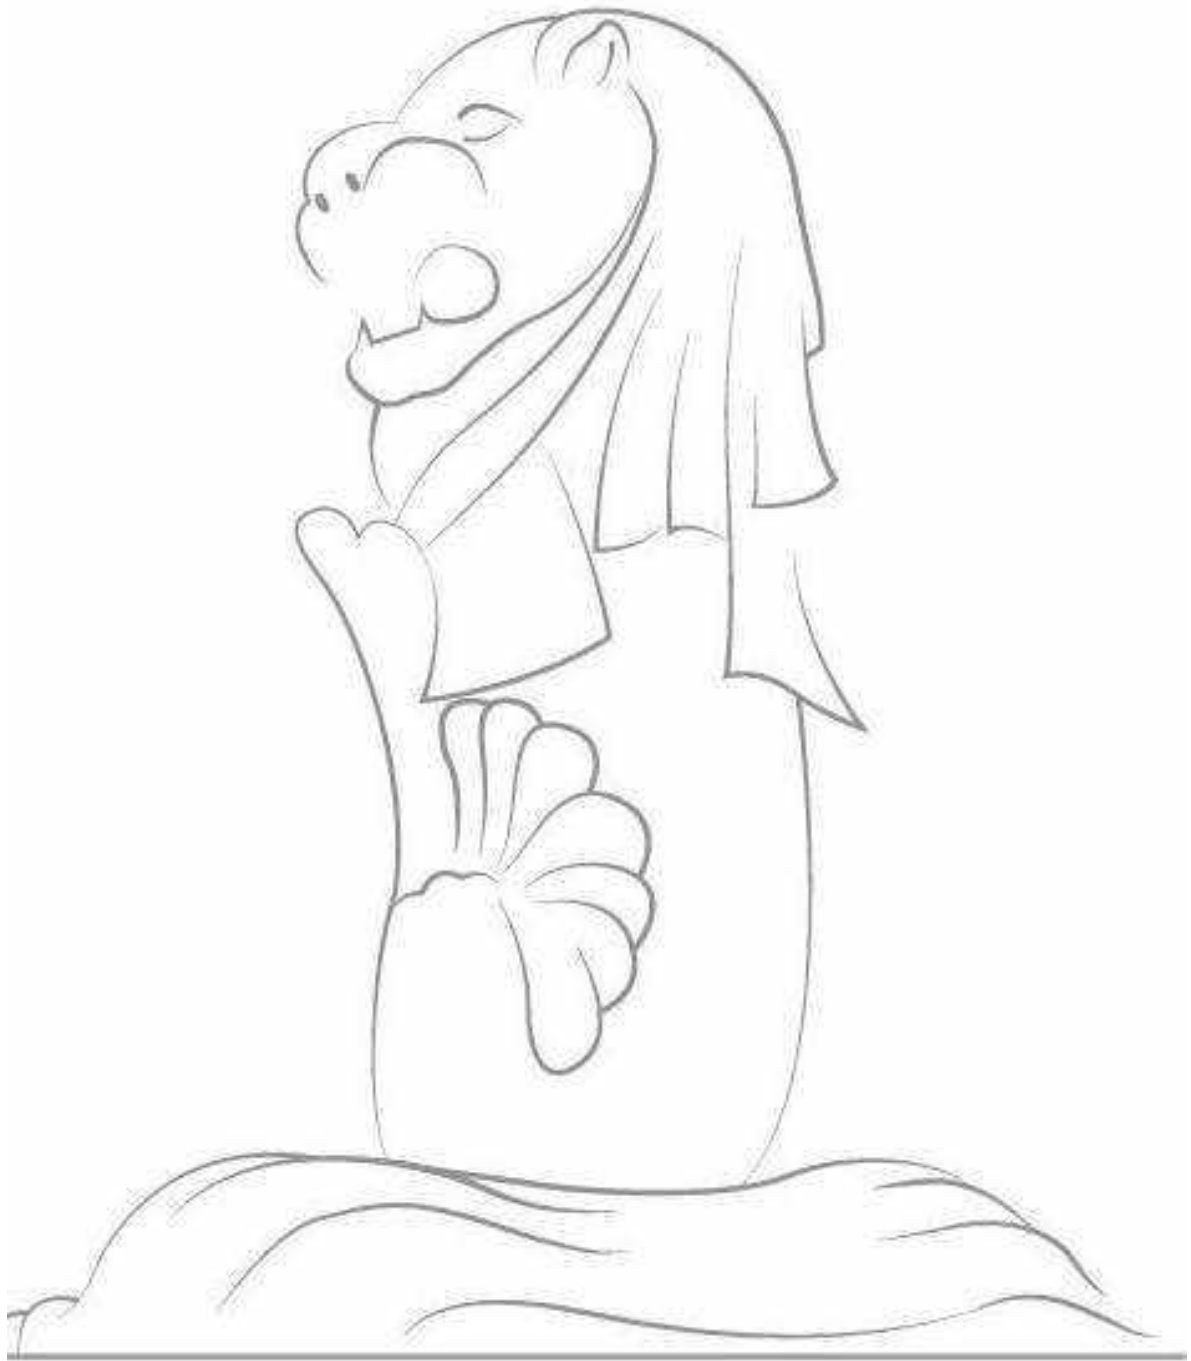

Let's draw and paint Singapore's flag.
